UP & DOWN THE BAYOU

UP THE BAYOU

Start your culinary experience in Thibodaux with a Cajun breakfast at Weeping Willow Café and Bakery where you can sip locally flavored coffees, lattes, frappes, cappuccinos, while enjoying a fresh delicious cinnamon roll or brownie.

Stop by Bourgeois Smokehouse and Specialty Meats and taste their world famous Cajun beef jerky. Take home one-of-a-kind stuffed chicken breast and their sausage that is smoked to perfection.

Take a tour at Donner Peltier Distillers and sample crafts spirits made from local ingredients like sugarcane and rice. Sample the award-winning Rougaroux Rum, Oryza Vodka and Oryza Gin, and get a taste of LA1 Whiskey - the first aged whiskey made in Louisiana since Prohibition.

For lunch check out Alumni Grill and select the special of the day or a burger topped with the restaurant's own homemade barbecue sauce, dressings, and pickles. Add some golden brown "Lard of the Fries" topped with smoked pulled pork, bacon, BBQ sauce, cheddar and pepper jack cheese, green onions and jalapenos.

To get a real drive-in experience, pull over at the Goal Post and indulge in their rich, creamy milkshakes and ice cream. Relax bayou-side and take in the warm breeze along Bayou Lafourche.

For dinner try the southern rustic cuisine at Cinclare in downtown Thibodaux. The chef serves beautiful dishes using fresh, local ingredients. Try weekly specials like crawfish pancakes or a tender steak and the drink of the week mixed by hand.

DOWN THE BAYOU

Some of the best seafood around can be found at CherAmie's in Cut Off. From stuffed crab to their signature dish, Eggplant Lafourche, this Cajun stop has a variety of culinary delights to choose from. Be sure to ask about their Bloody Mary which includes veggies and a boiled shrimp!

Get a taste of delectable delights at the Cajun Pecan House. Select from a variety of sweet treats made from scratch like pralines, candies, and king cakes. And don't forget to purchase a homemade fruitcake to take home.

Enjoy true southern hospitality with a one-of-a-kind dining at Alzina's Restaurant. As Ms. Alzina's special guests, you'll enjoy a relaxing home-cooked meals with favorites like crab meat lasagna, black-eyed-pea jambalaya, and Amaretto yams.
